

Combined Hunting for Snow Sheep in Russia

Trophy species: Yakut Snow Sheep (Ovis nivicola lydekkeri), Okhotsk Snow Sheep (Ovis nivicola alleni).

Hunting season: August 1 – November 30.

Best time: August – September.

Hunting regions: Yakutia and Khabarovsk Krai.

Accommodation: Wooden cabins, dining hall, sauna, outdoor facilities. Tented camp.

Physical requirements: Good physical shape is required.

Mountain altitude in the hunting area: 1,700 – 2,300 meters above sea level.

Duration of the tour: 12 days / 10 days of hunting.

Route and Program:

Day 1:

- Arrival at Yakutsk Airport. An early flight is recommended*.

- Transfer by road (about 700 km) towards Magadan; ferries cross the Lena and Aldan rivers along the way.
- Overnight at a base on the bank of the Tyra River.

If arriving in Yakutsk later in the day—closer to or after noon—it's better to stay overnight in Yakutsk with a transfer on the following day.*

Day 2:

- Travel upstream on a hovercraft along the Tyra River (about 4 hours)

Arrival at the base camp: dinner, sighting-in of firearms, rest.

Days 3–6:

- Hunting for Yakut Snow Sheep: Depart on "Sokol" ATVs and "Sever-Trak" vehicles, and then hike on foot.
- Return to the base camp daily for overnight stay.

Day 7:

- Transport by vehicle to Khabarovsk Krai (about 8–10 hours)
- Arrive at the tent camp.

Days 8–10:

- Hunting for Okhotsk Snow Sheep
- 1–2 days of hunting
- Return to the base camp, then back to Yakutsk in reverse order.

Weather conditions: August: +18°C (64F) daytime, +5°C nighttime (41F); September: +15°C to +5°C daytime (59-41F), -5°C to -10°C nighttime (23-14F); October: -8°C to -10°C daytime (18-14F), -20°C to -25°C nighttime (-4-13F); November: -15°C to -30°C daytime (5 to -22F), -30°C to -40°C nighttime (-22 to -40F).

Thank you for your interest in hunting with EVENTUS HUNT

Please contact us to book your adventure

EVENTUS, Karl Marks St. 2/1, Serpukhov, Moscow region, 142200 Russia, Tel: +7 926 12 902 13
e-mail: eventus.hunt@yandex.ru caim: www.eventus-hunt.com